Jeffrey Lasky began his career as a lawyer in Savannah, Georgia in 1981. Over the past four decades he has proudly built what has been known as Lasky Cooper Law with his late partner Arthur Cooper. In 2015 Darryl Lasky, Jeff's son, and Danny Justus joined the firm. Darryl has grown to lead the firm's pre-litigation department & manage the business operations of the firm. Danny has been Jeff's trial partner & has become the firm's lead litigator.

We are excited to announce Darryl & Danny joining Jeff as named partners and the firm will now transition into Lasky Justus Law. We will continue to zealously advocate for our clients in Savannah and throughout the state of Georgia. The firm will maintain their all-encompassing personal injury practice to include car wrecks, trucking collisions, medical malpractice, nursing home negligence, premise liability, and any catastrophic injury matter.

Our new home as of May 1, 2023, will be 317 East Liberty Street, Savannah, Georgia 31401. Our phone number will remain (912) 232-6423.

We look forward to continued service to our community in Savannah & throughout the state. We thank each of you who have become referral partners with us & look forward to continuing those long-standing relationships as well as forming new ones.

Attorney Samantha A. Timmons Joins HunterMaclean

HunterMaclean, a leading business law firm with offices in Savannah and St. Simons Island, recently welcomed Samantha A. Timmons in the firm's Corporate Practice Group. Samantha's focus is on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, private equity and venture capital investments, restructurings, and distressed situations. She has substantial experience in regard to tax aspects of a wide variety of capital markets transactions, advising on tax aspects of securitized products, debt financing, and private placements, including initial public offerings and convertible note offerings. Samantha has worked with a variety of industries including private equity, financial services, health care, media and entertainment, mining and natural resources, real estate, professional services, technology, apparel, and Internet and telecommunications. She has advised some of the world's largest multinational corporations and private equity firms.

Samantha A. Timmons

She received a Bachelor of Science from Syracuse University and her J.D. from Syracuse University College of Law. In addition, she received a Master of Laws from Georgetown University Law Center.

Prior to joining HunterMaclean, Samantha worked for three of the Big Four M&A tax practices in New York City, D.C., and Atlanta.

Attorney Emory L. Larkin Joins HunterMaclean

HunterMaclean, a leading business law firm with offices in Savannah and St. Simons Island, recently welcomed Emory L. Larkin in the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. Emory handles a wide variety of real estate related matters. She has significant experience representing her clients on residential and commercial matters, guiding them through property acquisition and transfers, title and survey issues, secured transactions, leases, easements, covenants, and more.

She graduated in the top five percent of her class, magna cum laude, from Mercer University School of Law and received her undergraduate degree from the University of Georgia in Finance. During her time in law school, Emory served on the Mercer Law Review and the Federal Bar Association Moot Court Team.

Emory L. Larkin

Emory grew up in the area and went to high school at Frederica Academy on St. Simons Island.

GLSP Thanks Volunteer Attorneys

On behalf of Georgia Legal Services Program, we want to thank the following attorneys for volunteering their legal services to the Pro Bono Program in the first quarter of 2023. With the help of these volunteers, we were able to serve 30 people who might not otherwise have received assistance. We are fortunate to have an outstanding group of lawyers in our community who are willing to give their time and expertise to help those in need. We truly appreciate your contribution to serving those who otherwise cannot afford legal services.

Savannah Tech Offers Career Connections

Attention All Attorneys: Are you looking to hire legal support staff? Do you have a job description/job listing for the position to share? Well, the Paralegal students at Savannah Technical College are eagerly awaiting an opportunity to learn, grow and advance in the legal services industry. No need to pay to post ads. You can simply submit your job notices on Savannah Technical College's online portal, Career Connections, which will allow you to easily reach our students and graduates. This user-friendly system allows you to provide an overview of your company, post ads, manage the dates the ads will run as well as view resumes and directly contact job seekers.

We invite you to use this link to post any openings you may currently have: <https://savannahtech-csm.symplicity.com/employers/>

Periodically, Savannah Technical College, hosts events throughout the year that will also give you an opportunity to directly connect with its students. By enrolling in Career Connections, you will be added to the distribution list for those events. Thank you for your consideration of our students and programs!

Now Open for Submissions

The Savannah Bar Association is always seeking content for upcoming editions of The Citation. Members are encouraged to submit:

- Your professional and personal announcements
- Law-related advertisements,
- Articles or announcements regarding your preferred philanthropies
- Other written submissions.

Suggestions for improving The Citation are also always welcome.

Finally, we love to receive photographs and video to share with our readers!

Bear in mind that our readers include not only current SBA members, but also many judges and law school students.

Please contact us at SBACitation@gmail.com with submissions or inquiries.
