SBA October BBQ and November Luncheon Recap

On October 19, 2023, the Savannah Bar Association held its annual Barbecue at Forest City Gun Club. A good time was had by all, as attendees enjoyed mouthwatering barbecue and live music. The event was generously sponsored by McKee Court Reporting and catered by Silk Road Catering of Richmond Hill.

On November 2, 2023, the SBA held its monthly luncheon at the Savannah Golf Club. The guest speaker was Andrew Konkel, Vice President of Resource Development of United Way of the Coastal Empire (“UWCE”). Among other things, he spoke about UWCE’s 211 call center for individuals and households experiencing hardship, and about the Herschel V. Jenkins Fund, which covers administrative expenses and yearly campaign costs. For more information on UWCE, including volunteer opportunities, visit <https://uwce.org>.

Additionally, William P. Franklin, Jr., of Oliver Maner read a resolution honoring the late William H. “Bill” Pinson, who passed away on March 20, 2023.

Finally, the Savannah Young Lawyers Division presented a check for $3,500.00, representing the proceeds from the seventeenth annual Guardian Ad Litem Charity Golf Tournament, to The Mediation Center of the Coastal Empire’s Guardian Ad Litem Program. The SBA’s annual Oyster Roast will be held at Old Fort Jackson on December 14.

November YLD Update

Although 2023 is winding down, the Savannah Young Lawyers Division continues to serve the profession by offering networking events and community service opportunities. Case in point: October 26, 2023. That morning, the YLD oversaw the annual mass swearing-in of new attorneys at the Chatham County Courthouse. The following eight attorneys were admitted to practice by Judge Benjamin W. Karpf:

JT Crosby
Olivia G. Adams
Copelenn McMahon
Nick Welch
Renuka Srivastava
Alvaro Barquin Pancorbo
Samuel J. Seaman
Brighten Donner

The YLD wishes all the best to these new attorneys. Many thanks to Judge Karpf and his staff, to Clerk of Superior Court Tammie Mosley, to YLD Secretary Amber Robinson, and to YLD Logistics Chair Madison Immel for making the event a success.

That evening, the YLD held its annual Haunted Trolley Ride with Old Town Trolley Tours. Congratulations to Lucas Earl, whose giant penguin costume took home a $50 gift card in the costume contest. Other contestants included Harrison Pratt as a creepy clown, Merry Layman as the Woman in White, Woodie Williams as Sherlock Holmes, Alec Chappell as Orville Peck, and Amber Robinson as an Aperol Spritz. Thanks to McKee Court Reporting for generously sponsoring the event!

Two days later, on October 28, the YLD participated in Keep Georgia Beautiful Day by picking up trash along Victory Drive on the north side of Daffin Park. Thanks to Merry Layman, Sophia Karnegis, and special guest John Soulakos for attending.

On November 10-11, Alec Chappell and Merry Layman represented Savannah at the Fall Meeting of the State Bar of Georgia's Young Lawyers Division in Charleston. Attendees volunteered at the Holy Smokes BBQ Festival to benefit the Ronald McDonald House. The weekend also included a Q&A with Justice Verda M. Colvin of the Supreme Court of Georgia and a murder mystery dinner party.

On November 16, the Savannah YLD held its monthly happy hour at 208 Wine Bar. Many thanks to Elizabeth Gallo Court Reporting (represented by TJ Diggins) and OMNI Healthcare/Glofin (represented by Zack McCown) for sponsoring the event.

The YLD's annual December holiday party will be held at the home of YLD President Alec Chappell on December 9. Stay tuned for an email with more information.

High School Mock Trial Announcement

Counselors and Colleagues:

First, I want to thank and acknowledge Alec Chappell and Harrison Pratt for getting involved and creating the Savannah Bar YLD Mock Trial Committee. This will undoubtedly be an asset to our legal community and help Savannah be a good representative for High School Mock Trial.

Some of you I have already heard from, but we still need plenty more help for the judging panels for all rounds/levels of the competition.

Savannah will once again host rounds of the 2024 High School Mock Trial Competition. The Regional Competition is scheduled for Saturday, February 10, 2024, followed by the District Competition on March 2, 2024, both at the Chatham County Courthouse. There will be a morning, mid-day, and afternoon round on each day. We need approximately 84 judging panel members for each day (28 per round), so please consider helping if you can.

CLE credit is available for attorneys and judges serving on a judging panel during the 2024 mock trial season: 1 general CLE hour, including 1 hour in Trial Practice and 1 hour in Professionalism (1,1,0,1). Members who are able to help in two different levels of the competition (Region/District/State Finals) can claim an additional 1 general CLE hour and 1 hour in Trial Practice (1,1,0,0). You will have to pay the minimum fee to earn the credit hour, and we can provide additional information in this regard on the date of the competition(s).

This is a great experience for the judges and students. If you can please spare the time to join us in hosting this event, please do so. For those who are interested and able to help, please register at <https://www.cognitoforms.com/HighSchoolMockTrial/JudgingPanelVolunteerRegistration2024Season>. Or if you prefer to contact me directly to get registered I can assist you as well.

Local schools may be looking for an attorney coach to assist with their Mock Trial teams this year.^[1] If you are interested in mentoring/coaching students participating in the competition, reach out to me and I can provide more information.

Thank you in advance and I hope to hear from you.

Yours collegially,
Craig Call

¹ According to an October 27, 2023 email from the State Bar of Georgia, Windsor Forest High School and St. Andrews School are seeking attorney coaches. You can contact Windsor Forest through Rachel Brown at Rachel.Brown@sccpss.com and St. Andrews through Ben Dombrowski at DombrowskiB@saslions.com.

HunterMaclean Honored with Fifteen First-Tier Rankings in U.S. News – Best Lawyers® 2024 “Best Law Firms”

HunterMaclean, a business law firm with offices in Savannah and St. Simons Island, was honored to be recognized with fifteen first-tier rankings in the 2024 edition of U.S. News – Best Lawyers® “Best Law Firms.” The complete list of rankings is published on the U.S. News website.

First published in 1983, Best Lawyers is recognized as one of the oldest and most esteemed peer review guides in the legal profession worldwide. Thousands of firms nationwide are considered through a detailed evaluation process before U.S. News and Best Lawyers make selections for a first-tier “Best Law Firms” ranking. Reviews are based on several factors including expertise, integrity, responsiveness, understanding of a business and its needs, cost-effectiveness, civility, and the rate of referrals.

HunterMaclean received first-tier rankings in the following practice areas:

- Admiralty & Maritime Law
- Commercial Litigation
- Construction Law
- Corporate Law
- Employment Law – Management
- Insurance Law
- Land Use & Zoning Law
- Litigation – Construction
- Litigation – Real Estate
- Medical Malpractice Law – Defendants
- Personal Injury Litigation – Defendants
- Product Liability Litigation – Defendants
- Railroad/Transportation Law
- Real Estate Law
- Trusts & Estates Law

HunterMaclean also received rankings in Health Care Law, Litigation – Insurance, Professional Malpractice Law – Defendants, and Tax Law. In addition to these rankings, twenty-seven HunterMaclean attorneys were selected earlier this year for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® 2024.

Best Lawyers is compiled based on extensive peer review evaluations from well-respected attorneys in similar practice areas, client and lawyer evaluations, and additional information included in the formal submission process.

Bouhan Falligant Recognized with Ten First-Tier Rankings in 2024 Edition of “Best Law Firms”[®]

Bouhan Falligant was recently recognized by the 2024 edition of “Best Law Firms”[®] with prestigious first-tier rankings in ten practice areas:

Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights / Insolvency and Reorganization Law

- Commercial Litigation
- Corporate Law
- Elder Law
- Litigation - Real Estate
- Personal Injury Litigation - Defendants
- Product Liability Litigation - Defendants
- Professional Malpractice Law - Defendants
- Real Estate Law
- Trusts & Estates Law

Firms recognized with a first-tier “Best Law Firms” ranking are selected based on a rigorous evaluation process that includes the collection of client and lawyer evaluations, peer review from leading attorneys in their field, and review of additional information provided by law firms as part of the formal submission process.

In addition, Bouhan Falligant was also recognized nationally for the firm’s work in Admiralty & Maritime Law, Closely Held Companies and Family Businesses Law, Education Law, Insurance Law, and Medical Malpractice Law - Defendants

The final rankings are published at www.bestlawfirms.com.

Oliver Maner's accomplished lawyers possess an extensive knowledge of the law and represent clients across diverse legal areas. Their unwavering dedication to delivering tailored solutions and responsive service underscores a commitment to providing clients with exceptional care and support.

"We are honored to be recognized by Best Lawyers as one of the best law firms in the country," said Patrick T. O'Connor, managing partner of Oliver Maner. "This recognition is a reflection of the hard work and dedication of our lawyers and staff. We are committed to providing our clients with the highest quality of legal services, and we are proud to be recognized for our excellence."

"We are pleased that Oliver Maner has been recognized as one of the nation's premier law firms," said Patrick T. O'Connor, Managing Partner at Oliver Maner. "Our firm has been committed to providing quality legal services for decades and we are committed to continuing that kind of service to our clients."

Best Lawyers recognition is based on an exhaustive peer review process. Each year, Best Lawyers surveys thousands of lawyers across the country to identify the top legal practitioners in their respective fields. Lawyers are asked to rate their peers based on their professional ability, experience and ethical standards.

Oliver Maner Recognizes National Homelessness Awareness Month with Third Annual Donation Drive for Union Mission's Parker's House: A Place for Women

Oliver Maner, one of Savannah's most prestigious law firms, will again partner with other local law firms to raise awareness and collect supplies for Parker's House at Union Mission during National Homelessness Awareness Month. Parker's House is Savannah and Coastal Georgia's only facility dedicated to providing emergency housing and comprehensive supportive services for unaccompanied women experiencing homelessness.

This is the third consecutive year Oliver Maner has led this effort. The donation drive runs throughout November with a challenge from Oliver Maner to the Savannah-area legal community — and the public at large — to join their drive to spread the word, increase donations, and collect essential items for the women at Parker's House.

"So many of us are fortunate that we don't think twice about soap or socks, but to women in crisis facing homelessness, it's yet another hurdle in the way of a stable and fulfilling life. Everyone deserves that, so we are happy to help and grateful for the response from the Savannah community," said Oliver Maner associate Amelia Stevens.

Oliver Maner has set up an Amazon registry to make donating more convenient.

The items needed most this year include:

- Personal care items (toothpaste, shampoo, soap, deodorant)
- Bedding (new pillows, sheets)
- Paper products (toilet paper, paper towels)
- Cleaning supplies (Swiffer products, Lysol cleaners, disinfectant wipes)
- Undergarments (socks, undershirts)
- Laundry supplies (detergent pods, dryer sheets)

Additionally, these items can be dropped off at the Oliver Maner office, 218 W. State St., during business hours. The firm will accept donations at their office through Thursday, Nov. 30.

Through the Emergency Housing Programs, Union Mission provides clients with individualized case management and access to an array of comprehensive supportive services that work to address clients' medical, mental health, transportation and employment needs in order to help them permanently end their homelessness.

Union Mission's Parker's House partners with women to foster personal, economic, and housing stability by providing 90 days of emergency housing with supportive services for up to 32 women at a time.

The women served at Parker's House are the face of resilience and hope. Since opening on September 6, 2022, Parker's House has achieved the following:

- 222 women served, more than double initial projections
- 60% employed at entry

- 136 obtained safe and stable housing
- 148 increased income through employment and benefits
- 50% engaged in Mental Health Counseling Services
- 19,980 meals provided

Union Mission provides basic human needs for the residents, including food, clothing, transportation, access to mental healthcare, employment support and other services. The goal of Parker's House is to help residents maintain stable housing and reemerge as independent members of the community.

Parker's House is located at 125 Fahm St., Savannah, in the former JC Lewis Healthcare building. The 10,590-square-foot renovated facility offers emergency housing, on-site Case Managers, Resident Assistants, and support services for up to 32 women for as long as 90 days.

Savannah-Chatham County has the second-highest rate of homelessness in Georgia. According to the Chatham Savannah Authority for the Homeless 2023 HUD PIT Survey, on any given night, more than 180 women in Chatham County are experiencing homelessness.

Catholic Lawyers Guild Hosts Annual Red Mass

The Catholic Lawyers Guild of the Catholic Diocese of Savannah hosted its annual Red Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of St. John the Baptist at noon, Friday, October 5. The main celebrant of the Mass was the Most Reverend Stephen D. Parks, Bishop of Savannah. Deceased members of the profession over the past year were remembered.

Following the Mass, a reception was held at the bishop's residence. The St. Thomas More Award was presented to Sr. Pat Brown in recognition of her work and advocacy on behalf of marginalized individuals throughout South Georgia. In her role as Director of the Diocesan Office of Social Ministry, Sr. Pat encouraged the development and growth of the Catholic Lawyers Guild, which was established in 2006.

Sr. Pat recently relocated to the mother house of her religious community, the Sisters of St. Mary of Namur, in Buffalo. In her stead, Felix Montanez accepted the award. Felix is a former staff attorney with Georgia Legal Services and with Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Miami. He is currently a Senior Staff Attorney with Southern Poverty Law Center.

The initial Red Mass was celebrated in Paris in 1245 and has traditionally been observed to mark the opening of the courts and to invoke the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Chatham County Clerk of Superior Court

Filing Activity Notification System (FANS)

Clerk of Superior Court
Tammie Mosley

Chatham County Superior Court Clerk's office in conjunction with the Georgia Superior Court Clerks' Cooperative Authority (GSCCCA) is pleased to offer the Filing Activity Notification System, FANS, providing Georgia citizens with tools to monitor activity regarding their property and records. The Filing Activity Notification System (FANS) is designed to offer individuals the ability to receive a notification when certain real estate and personal property records are filed with, indexed, and data is transmitted by Clerks of Superior Court throughout the state of Georgia.

FANS is a free, voluntary, opt-in program that can be used to send electronic notifications of filing activity to individuals who create notifications in the system.

To get started, go to <https://fans.gsccca.org> and follow the prompts. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the FANS, please contact the Georgia Superior Court Clerks' Cooperative Authority customer support at 1-800-304-5174 or help@gsccca.org.

We hope you find this service to be beneficial as Chatham County Superior Court Clerk's office continues to explore and implement new ways to improve services delivered to the citizens of Chatham County.

CERTIFIED eCertification RECORDS

ECertification services provide users the ability to electronically request CERTIFIED court and real estate records 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

A trip will no longer be required to the Clerk's office to have a paper copy certified. Customers can purchase electronically certified records from the convenience of their home, their smart phone, or anywhere they have internet access 24-7, and upon processing by the Clerk's office, receive them as secured PDFs via email or online.
